Alma Mater

Oh Delta State, we cling to the memory
Of happy days we've spent,

Of standards high, and of friendships dear,
Making our life there something to treasure.

We have come to sing the praises
Of the old school we love best,

Oh, hail to you, our dear Alma Mater,
Oh, hail to old Delta State.

THE FACULTY

WILLIAM M. KETHLEY, M.A.
President

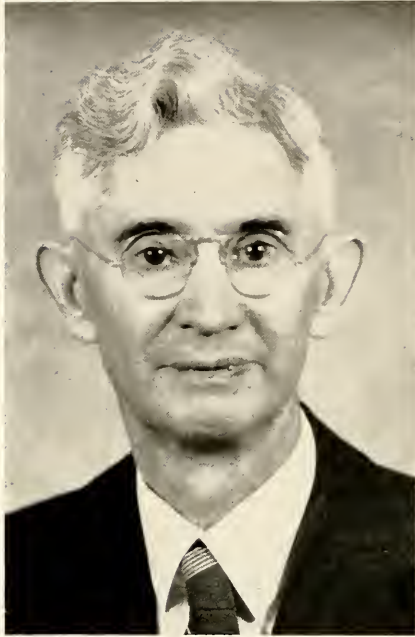

"In the early years of the postwar world the colleges are undergoing the greatest change in their history. But education does not change. The need for an education is the same, and the need for stable, intelligent, well trained citizens is the same.

We hope and trust that in spite of confusion and change, you, as college students, will continue to see and understand the true purposes of education."

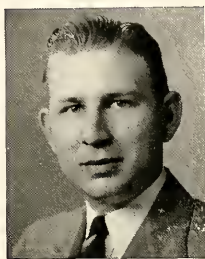

W. M. KETHLEY

WILLIAM H. ZEIGEL, Ph.D.
Dean of the Faculty

To Dr. Zeigel, for his interest in and sympathy for students, and for his faithful service to Delta State for more than twenty-one years, we offer our sincere appreciation.

COACH WILEY

COACH MARLAR

Delta State is deeply indebted to Coaches Wiley, Wyatt, and Marlar for their leadership, inspiration, guidance and faith in the Statesmen during the seasons.

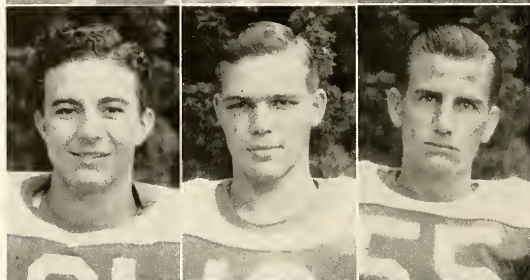

COACH WYATT

F O O T

BILL BURLESON, Junior guard, whose leadership and guidance as Captain was a great factor in the team's success.

CHARLIE COFFMAN, Junior end, who made it a practice of playing in the opponent's backfield.

WALTER GRAGG, Freshman tackle, who had a great deal to do with the defensive as well as the offensive success of the team.

JIMMIE TARZI, Freshman center, who played a sturdy, wide awake brand of football all season.

JOE CRAWFORD, Junior tackle, whose hard blocking as well as defensive ability made an interesting spectacle to watch.

JOHN WADE, Junior end, with plenty of determination that kept his end of the line well secure.

EARL BARBOUR, hard hitting, hard running, Freshman fullback, who kept the team out of trouble with timely punting.

BILL BUSH, Senior quarterback, whose ball handling and passing ability made an important cog in the team's offensive wheel.

WAYNE DAVIDSON, Freshman halfback, who has great running ability as well as good defensive play.

AL OUBRE, Junior halfback, whose experience and running ability made him high scorer for the season.

HERBERT WILSON, Junior center-guard, whose versatility proved quite a benefactor in the team's play.

J. T. BOLING, 190-pound Junior triple-threat fullback, with experience as well as ability that made him a valuable asset to the team.

BILL GARDNER, 6', 1" Sophomore end, whose great pass catching ability made him an excellent offensive end.

PAUL ROBERTSON, Senior fast charging guard, with plenty of grit and determination.

ALEXANDER VETRANO, Freshman guard, whose hard tackling ability made him a standout in the team's defensive play.

BALL

CLAUDE RANEY, Freshman quarterback, with running and passing ability that was helpful throughout the season.

WILLIAM HILL, Junior halfback, who weighed only 148 pounds but tackled with the ferocity of Doc Blanchard.

TOMMY BOONE, 135-pound Freshman halfback, whose swiftness made up for his lack of weight.

SAM BRIDGERS, Junior halfback, with punting and running ability as well as plenty of determination.

FRANK JANOUCH, Freshman fullback, who ran and tackled with skilled accuracy.

ROY LIPE, Freshman halfback, with passing and running ability which proved quite effective during the latter part of the season.

PAT REYNOLDS, Freshman end, had plenty of scrap and determination lacking only in experience.

JAMES SMITH, Freshman end, who had a great pass catching ability and potentialities of a good end.

LEO FRANKEL, Freshman inexperienced tackle, who played a great deal of football during the season.

BILL MORRIS, Freshman tackle, who played his first game of football this year with aptness and ability.

JACK STEPHENSON, Freshman halfback, who had plenty of speed to make him a constant threat each time he took the ball.

BILL CONNERS, 130-pound Freshman guard, whose determination was an inspiring factor.

SIM DULANEY, Freshman guard, who was as scrappy as they come, lacking only in weight.

RANDOLPH SMITHERS, fancy passing little Freshman quarterback who was unable to show his ability due to injuries.

CLYDE WESTON

With the first renewal of intercollegiate football at Delta State since the fall of 1941, Coaches Wyatt and Wiley called for the opening practice on September 10 with somewhat of a question as to the material that would be available. The opening practice was somewhat of a surprise, however, as twenty-eight men who ranged from three years' experience at college football to fellows who had never even seen a football game. The outlook brightened as time went on, with men joining in to play the game just for the sheer fun of playing. By the time the season started, Delta State had a likely looking squad of 36 men who were looking forward to a successful season.

The team as a whole is to be greatly commended on its excellent attitude of taking many subjects on one shoulder and the non-subsidized football on the other. The team came out with a total of 70 points scored and 67 points scored by opponents.

The results are as follows:
